

Shreveport Police Department
Chief Wayne Smith

Media Inquiries:

shreveportdpio@shreveportla.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

5/21/2024

Pursuit Leads to Felony Arrest

Sirleonard Abrams

In the early hours of May 20, Shreveport Police successfully apprehended 26-year-old Sirleonard Abrams following a dramatic pursuit resulting in multiple charges.

Officers initiated a routine traffic stop, but Abrams refused to comply, beginning a chase that traversed the city streets. The pursuit concluded near the intersection of Hollywood and Kennedy after Abrams collided with multiple objects in his desperate attempt to evade capture.

As a consequence of his actions, Abrams now faces a litany of charges, including felony hit and run, aggravated flight from an officer, and possession of a scheduled narcotic.

This arrest underscores our unwavering commitment to ensuring the safety of our community, stated. We commend the swift and decisive action of our officers in bringing this dangerous individual into custody.

Suspects are innocent until proven guilty.