Proactive Patrol Officers Arrest Convicted Felon with Firearm

Corion Thomas

On May 30 at approximately 8:00 a.m., proactive patrol officers with the Shreveport Police Department conducted a traffic stop at the intersection of Kings Highway and Sanford Avenue due to observed traffic violations. During the stop, officers made contact with 23-year-old Corion Thomas.

Upon investigation, officers found Thomas to be in possession of a handgun and Schedule I narcotics. Thomas, a convicted felon, was arrested and charged with one count of being a convicted felon in possession of a firearm and one count of possession of a Schedule I narcotic. He was also issued citations and arrested for multiple traffic offenses.

Chief Smith commends the diligent work of our proactive patrol officers in removing another felon in possession of a handgun from the streets.

Suspects are innocent until proven guilty.
