Arrest of Suspect for Sexual Assault

Tresdan Griffin

Shreveport Police Department's Sex Crimes Detectives have arrested 21-year-old Tresdan Griffin on one count of first-degree rape. This arrest follows an extensive investigation into the sexual assault of a juvenile.

Griffin was apprehended after detectives gathered evidence linking him to the crime. The investigation, conducted with the utmost diligence and sensitivity, underscores the Shreveport Police Department's commitment to bringing justice to the victims of sexual violence and ensuring the safety of the community.

Tresdan Griffin is currently in custody and awaiting trial. If convicted, he faces the possibility of the death penalty, reflecting the serious nature of the charge against him.

The Shreveport Police Department encourages anyone with additional information regarding this case to come forward and assist in the ongoing investigation. Information can be reported anonymously to Shreveport Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373.

The Shreveport Police Department is dedicated to protecting and serving the community through the enforcement of laws, the prevention of crime, and the provision of services that enhance the quality of life in Shreveport.

Suspects are innocent until proven guilty.
