Man Arrested After Threatening Family With A Knife

Sergio Montemayor

Shreveport Police have arrested Sergio Montemayor following an incident on June 20, 2024, where he allegedly threatened family members with a knife. Officers responded to an emergency call from a residence in the 200 block of Schaub Drive, where call takers could hear children screaming in the background, indicating a man was attempting to harm them.

Upon arrival, officers apprehended the 32-year-old male suspect without incident. Sergio Montemayor has been charged with one count of domestic abuse aggravated assault, domestic abuse battery, and four counts of domestic abuse with child endangerment. Fortunately, no serious injuries were reported.

The Shreveport Police Department urges all victims of domestic violence to seek help and support. Resources and assistance are available for those in need.

Suspects are innocent until proven guilty.
