Councilmembers Green & Taylor to Host Informational Workshop for Business Permits

SHREVEPORT, LA—Are you a vendor, food truck owner, or festival participant looking to do business in the City of Shreveport? Council Vice Chairman James Green and Councilwoman Tabatha Taylor are hosting an informational workshop designed to guide you through the permit application process.

Event Details: Date: Monday, July 15, 2024

Time: 10:30 AM

Location: City Council Chamber, 505 Travis St., Shreveport, LA

Join us to learn more about the process and requirements for obtaining business permits in Shreveport. The workshop will feature presentations and Q&A sessions with representatives from the following departments:

- Department of Revenue, City of Shreveport: Learn about the financial and tax requirements for doing business in the city.
- Metropolitan Planning Commission: Understand zoning and permitting regulations and how they apply to your business.
- Caddo-Shreveport Sales & Use Tax Commission: Get information on sales and use tax compliance.
- SPD Alcoholic Beverage Unit: Discover the regulations for obtaining alcoholic beverage permits.
- MS KICK: Hear about food service/truck regulations, food safety certification, and licensing requirements.

Council Vice Chairman James Green emphasizes the importance of this workshop, stating, "We want to make sure that all our local vendors and entrepreneurs have the necessary information to successfully and legally operate their businesses. This workshop is an essential step in supporting our business community."

Councilwoman Tabatha Taylor adds, "Our goal is to provide clarity and assistance to anyone looking to do business in Shreveport. By bringing together key departments, we are making it easier for our business owners to navigate the permit process and thrive in our city."

This workshop is an excellent opportunity to get all your questions answered directly by the experts and ensure you are fully prepared to operate your business legally and successfully in Shreveport.

RSVP and Additional Information: For more information and to RSVP, please contact the City Council Office at 318-673-5262. Don't miss this chance to get informed and get your business on the right track. We look forward to seeing you there!
