Shreveport Police Sex Crimes Detectives Make Arrest

Cortez Sharp

On July 15, Shreveport Police Sex Crimes detectives were called to the 4900 block of Dandridge Place. Following an investigation, it was determined that Cortez Sharp, 41 years of age, was accused of groping a female in a sexual manner.

Detectives with the Shreveport Police Sex Crimes Unit arrested Sharp, and he has been charged with one count of felony sexual battery. This offense is punishable by up to 10 years in prison.

The Shreveport Police Department is committed to treating sexual assault investigations with the highest level of seriousness and urgency. We are dedicated to ensuring that all cases are thoroughly and meticulously examined, and we will utilize all available resources to support victims and bring perpetrators to justice.
