Shreveport Police Proactive Officers Have a Productive Weekend

Chief Wayne Smith and his command staff assigned four patrol officers to a special team with the mission of deterring crime in the downtown area and other parts of Shreveport. Over the course of the weekend, these officers conducted 104 traffic stops and issued 189 citations.

In addition to these actions, the officers made 11 arrests, seized multiple firearms, and impounded several vehicles.

Chief Wayne Smith wants to commend our officers for their actions this weekend and remind our community of the Shreveport Police Department's commitment to provide high-quality public safety services. The Shreveport Police Department will continue our efforts to deter crime and improve the quality of life for our citizens.
