Parents Held Accountable for Missed Juvenile Court Dates

On July 30 and 31, 2024, members of the Violent Crimes Abatement Team, along with the Shreveport Police Department, the Shreveport City Marshal's Office, and Caddo Parish Juvenile Services, collaborated on a warrant operation. The purpose of this operation was to execute arrest warrants issued by the Caddo Parish Juvenile Courts against parents and guardians who have neglected to bring their children to scheduled juvenile court appearances.

Law enforcement officers targeted specific locations within the City of Shreveport where violent and juvenile offenses have been on the rise. The operation was part of an ongoing effort to ensure accountability and compliance with the juvenile justice system.

The following individuals were arrested during this operation:

Minnie Mouton - Felony	Jalisa Little - Felony	LaShonda Perrow - Felony
Shacorey Williams - Felony	Crystal Jones - Felony	Tiffany Davis – Misdemeanor
Isaac Darrentine - Felony	Antonio Coleman - Felony

Chief Wayne Smith believes that by holding parents and guardians accountable, SPD will address and reduce the rates of juvenile delinquency and ensure that young offenders receive the necessary judicial oversight. This operation underscores our commitment to upholding the rule of law and maintaining public safety in our community. Some MUGSHOTs were not available at this time.
