DWI Arrests Over the Weekend Keep SPD at a Record Pace

The Shreveport Police Department (SPD) continued its relentless efforts to ensure public safety during the bustling weekend of the Humor and Harmony Festival. While the festival was widely regarded as a success, the SPD DWI Unit remained vigilant and active throughout the events, resulting in a significant number of arrests for driving while intoxicated (DWI) and related offenses.

Throughout the weekend, the following individuals were arrested for DWI-related incidents:

- Marcus Yearling, 40, was arrested for his 2nd DWI offense.
- Adrian Wood, 27, was arrested for DWI.
- Darlin Vaquez, 24, was arrested for Hit and Run and DWI.
- Eric Todd, 29, was arrested for DWI.
- Austin Sanders, 36, was arrested for DWI.
- Kyle Hoffman, 21, was arrested for DWI.
- Elvin Landers, 33, was arrested for DWI.
- Juan Gonzales, 22, was arrested for DWI.
- Durwyn Flournoy, 43, was arrested for DWI.
- Rodrick Emery, 52, was arrested for DWI.
- Tony Carter, 55, was arrested for DWI.
- Kleshay Berry, 33, was arrested for DWI.
- Sharoniques Alexander, 32, was arrested for DWI.

These arrests underscore Chief Smith's unwavering commitment to the strict enforcement of laws aimed at maintaining the safety of our streets. The Shreveport Police Department remains dedicated to protecting the community from the dangers posed by impaired drivers and will continue to prioritize such enforcement actions.
