Arrest Made in Bomb Threat Against Shreveport Church

An arrest has been made following the reported bomb threat against St. Joseph Catholic Church in Shreveport, LA on June 23, 2024. This arrest is made possible by a collaborative effort amongst Shreveport Fire Investigations Officer Charles Menefee, along with Shreveport Police Department Agent Gilmore, Louisiana State Police Agent Cahn, the Caddo Parish District Attorney's Office, Mt. Shasta California Police Department, and the FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force.

Grant Livigni was arrested on Monday July 29, 2024, in Mt. Shasta, California. Livigni will be extradited back to Shreveport by Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office. Charges against Livigni include one count of communicating false information of a planned arson or bombing (Louisiana Revised Statue 14:54:1.) Livigni is being held without bond.
