Shreveport Police Detectives Arrest Two and Actively Search for One in July Homicide

Lejerrion Lee

Perteria Seamster

Following the ongoing investigation into the July 17th homicide on Kennedy Street, Shreveport Police Department Violent Crimes detectives have made significant progress.

On August 14th detectives arrested 22-year-old Lejerrion Lee on charges of second-degree murder, adding to the arrest of Everett Henderson, who was previously charged with second-degree murder in connection with the same incident.

The investigation remains active, with detectives now focusing on locating Perteria Seamster, who is wanted in connection to the tragic event that claimed the life of a young man.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Perteria Seamster is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300. He is considered armed and dangerous. Your assistance is crucial in bringing those responsible to justice.
