Shreveport Police Seek Woman Wanted in Recent Shooting Incident

Gerrica Stewart

The Shreveport Police Department is actively seeking 31-year-old Gerrica Stewart, who is wanted in connection with a shooting that occurred on the evening of August 30th. At approximately 8:30 PM, Shreveport Police Patrol officers were notified of a shooting at a local hospital. Upon further investigation, it was determined that the actual crime scene was at the intersection of Buncombe Road and West Bert Kouns Industrial Loop.

The investigation revealed that the victim had been involved in an argument with the suspect, Gerrica Stewart. During the altercation, Stewart allegedly struck the victim with a handgun, leading to a physical confrontation. The suspect then used the same handgun to shoot the victim.

After the shooting, the victim was transported by a private vehicle to her residence, where she subsequently called 911. She was then taken to the hospital for treatment.

Gerrica Stewart is now wanted for one count of Aggravated Second Degree Battery. Anyone with information on her whereabouts is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at (318) 673-7300.
