South Highland Burglary Crew Arrested; One Suspect Still Outstanding

Shreveport Police Department's Property Crimes detectives have made significant progress in their investigation of a string of residential burglaries in the South Highland neighborhood. On September 6th, detectives executed multiple search warrants, leading to the recovery of numerous stolen items, including four firearms, various pieces of jewelry, and electronics. These items were connected to ten residential burglaries in the area.

As a result of the investigation, detectives arrested two suspects:

- Stormy Hackworth, 21 years old, has been charged with nine counts of illegal possession of stolen things.
- Lakordo Jamerson, 19 years old, faces multiple charges, including eight counts of burglary of an inhabited dwelling, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, possession of Schedule I and Schedule II controlled substances, possession of a firearm with a controlled dangerous substance (CDS), and a parole violation.

However, detectives are still searching for the final suspect, Dantanvis Jamerson, 33 years old, who is wanted in connection with these burglaries. The Shreveport Police Department urges anyone with information on his whereabouts to come forward.

This ongoing investigation highlights the commitment of the Shreveport Police Department to protecting the community and bringing those responsible for criminal activity to justice. Chief Smith would like to commend the work of the SPD property crimes unit.
