Man Arrested on Multiple Domestic Violence Charges

Kendrick McDowell

Shreveport Police have arrested 32-year-old Kendrick McDowell on multiple domestic violence charges following a violent domestic dispute on September 7th that left a female victim bloodied and injured.

After a week-long investigation, patrol officers successfully located McDowell on September 14th. He has been charged with Domestic Abuse Battery with Serious Bodily Injury, along with three counts of Domestic Abuse Battery with Child Endangerment, due to the presence of children during the incident.

This arrest is the result of outstanding work by SPD patrol officers, who worked diligently to track down the suspect and ensure that no further violence occurred. The victim is expected to make a full recovery.
