Armed Man Arrested After Threatening Family Members

Demarcus Little

Shreveport Police have arrested 42-year-old Demarcus Little following a domestic disturbance in the 4100 block of Reily Lane, where he was reportedly threatening family members with a knife.

When officers arrived at the scene, Little refused to comply with verbal commands, further escalating the danger of the situation. Despite the threat, officers were able to safely take the armed suspect into custody with minimal use of force. Fortunately, no serious injuries were reported. He has been charged with Aggravated Assault and Resisting.

Incidents like this highlight the dedication and bravery of our officers, who work tirelessly to protect our community and navigate difficult, high-risk situations. We thank these officers for the job they do on a daily basis.
