Two Women Arrested for Home Invasion

Katie Thomas

Adrianna Thomas

On September 14th, 2024, Shreveport Police were contacted regarding a home invasion where subjects forcefully entered a victim's apartment and assaulted her inside her home. SPD patrol officers quickly identified at least two individuals involved in the incident.

Following a detailed investigation by SPD Violent Crimes Detectives, two arrests were made. Adriana Thomas, 25, and her mother, Katie Thomas, 43, were both taken into custody. The investigation revealed that Katie Thomas forcefully kicked in the apartment door, allowing Adriana and two others to enter the residence and assault the victim. The victim sustained a laceration above her left eye, as well as other minor injuries.

Adriana Thomas was charged with Improper Telephone Communication and Home Invasion, while Katie Thomas was charged with Home Invasion.

This case highlights the excellent collaboration between SPD patrol officers and detectives in apprehending the suspects.
