Felon Arrested with Firearm Following Traffic Stop

Marvin Hall

On September 28, 2024, Shreveport Police officers initiated a traffic stop at the intersection of Hollywood Avenue and McAlpine Avenue. During the stop, officers made contact with the driver, Marvin Hall, 41, who was found to have outstanding warrants.

Further investigation revealed that Hall was in possession of a handgun, which he is prohibited from having due to his status as a convicted felon. Hall was arrested for illegal possession of a firearm by a felon, in addition to his outstanding warrants.

Chief Smith emphasized that felons possessing firearms pose a serious risk to public safety, and such actions will not be tolerated by the Shreveport Police Department.
