CITY OF SHREVEPORT TO HONOR MAJOR GENERAL CHARLES D. BOLTON, SOUTHWOOD HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNUS, AND 18TH AIR FORCE COMMANDER, WITH CEREMONIAL KEY TO THE CITY

The City of Shreveport is proud to announce a special event to welcome home Major General Charles D. Bolton, a distinguished Southwood High School alumnus who currently serves as the 18th Air Force Commander at Scott Air Force Base in Illinois.

The event will be held at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, October 30, 2024, on the first floor of Government Plaza in the foyer area, where the mayor will present Major General Bolton with a ceremonial key to the city in recognition of his exemplary service and accomplishments.

Mayor Arceneaux expressed his excitement for the upcoming event, stating, "Major General Bolton has dedicated his life to serving our country with honor and distinction. We are thrilled to welcome him back to Shreveport and to recognize his significant contributions to our nation's defense. His achievements serve as an inspiration to our entire community and particularly to the young men and women of Shreveport."

The City of Shreveport invites media and community members to join this special event as we honor Major General Bolton's extraordinary career and celebrate his accomplishments.
