Shreveport Woman Wanted for Bank Fraud

Shunya Hines

On September 17, 2024, Shunya Hines allegedly deposited a fraudulent cashier's check at a local financial institution. The check, valued at $4,193.00, was styled in the name of Providence House. Shortly after, the check was returned as fraudulent. Detectives from the Shreveport-Caddo Financial Crimes Task Force conducted an investigation, confirming with Providence House representatives that Hines was never employed by the organization.

On October 31, 2024, an arrest warrant was issued for Hines on one count of Bank Fraud. Detectives are actively seeking information on her whereabouts. Anyone with information is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373.
