Shreveport Police Seek Public's Help to Locate Two Women Wanted in Robbery

Shamya Taylor

Ka'Najahae Lampkins

The Shreveport Police Department is requesting assistance from the public in locating two women involved in a robbery on Red Bud Lane. On the evening of November 2, 2024, a female victim was walking to a local store when she was approached by two other women. The suspects physically assaulted the victim, took her money, and quickly fled the scene.

Following an investigation, SPD Violent Crimes Detectives identified Shamya Taylor and Ka'Najahae Lampkins as the suspects responsible for the incident. Detectives have since secured warrants for both women on charges of Simple Robbery.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Shamya Taylor or Ka'Najahae Lampkins is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373.

Your assistance is vital in helping bring these suspects to justice and ensuring the safety of our community.
