HAPPY THANKSGIVING FROM MAYOR ARCENEUX AND THE CITY OF SHREVEPORT

As families across Shreveport gather to celebrate Thanksgiving, Mayor Tom Arceneaux and the City of Shreveport extend warm holiday wishes to all residents.

“This Thanksgiving, we have so much to be grateful for as a city,” said Mayor Arceneaux. “I am thankful for the resilience and strength of our community, the dedication of our city employees, and the progress we are making together to build a brighter future. Let us use this time to reflect on our blessings, share kindness with others, and embrace the spirit of togetherness that defines Shreveport.”

As we give thanks, the City of Shreveport reminds everyone to travel safely and responsibly during the holiday weekend.

From our family to yours, the City of Shreveport wishes you a joyful, safe, and Happy Thanksgiving! Click here to view a video message from Mayor Arceneaux: <https://youtu.be/2CXc2onhahk?si=EhBYcKoh2III3Qig>
