Shreveport Woman Arrested in Domestic Stabbing Incident

Shania Henry

On December 10, 2024, at approximately 9:20 a.m., Shreveport Police Department officers responded to a call regarding a physical domestic dispute at a residence on the 3300 block of Bond Drive.

Upon arrival, officers encountered a male victim who had sustained a stab wound to his arm. The victim informed officers that Shania Henry, a 20-year-old Black female (DOB: 09/19/04), was responsible for the injury and was still at the scene.

Officers took Henry into custody and conducted an investigation. According to statements, the incident began as a verbal dispute about their romantic relationship and escalated when Henry retrieved a knife from the kitchen and attacked the victim. Henry admitted to becoming upset, retrieving the knife, and intentionally injuring the victim.

Henry was transported to the Shreveport City Jail and charged with Battery of a Dating Partner with a Dangerous Weapon. The victim was taken to a local hospital with non-life-threatening injuries and is expected to recover.

The Shreveport Police Department urges anyone experiencing domestic violence to seek help. Resources and assistance are available by contacting local support organizations.
