Shreveport Police Seek Domestic Violence Suspect

Cary Davis

The Shreveport Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in locating Cary Davis, who is wanted in connection with a domestic violence incident that occurred on November 29, 2024.

According to the victim's report, Davis placed both hands around her neck, impeding her airway and making it difficult to breathe. The victim also stated that Davis struck her in the face with a closed fist during the incident, which occurred while she was driving him to his residence. During the drive, Davis allegedly grabbed the steering wheel, causing the vehicle to veer off the road and crash into a ditch.

Detectives interviewed the victim, who reiterated the details of the incident as described in the original report. Personal photographs of her injuries were provided, and detectives observed a pinkish-red scratch on her throat consistent with recent trauma.

Efforts to locate Cary Davis have been unsuccessful. Detectives have obtained an arrest warrant for Davis on charges of Battery of a Dating Partner by Strangulation and Aggravated Criminal Damage to Property.

Anyone with information on Cary Davis's whereabouts is urged to contact Shreveport Police detectives at 318-673-7300 or call Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373. Tips submitted through Crime Stoppers remain anonymous and may qualify for a cash reward.

Domestic violence is a serious issue, and the Shreveport Police Department is committed to ensuring the safety of victims and holding offenders accountable for their actions.
