Suspect Identified in JCPenney Theft; Warrant Issued

Rhonda R. Morris

With the help of the Texarkana Police Department, Shreveport Police have made significant progress in identifying a suspect involved in the recent theft of diamond rings from the JCPenney store on Youree Drive.

One of the stolen rings was tracked to a pawn shop in Texarkana, Texas, and has been positively identified by the Shreveport JCPenney General Manager. The suspect in this case has been identified as Rhonda R. Morris, a White female.

Morris is also believed to be connected to a similar theft at the Bossier City JCPenney location. A warrant has been issued for her arrest on charges of felony theft.

Detectives are asking for the public's assistance in locating Rhonda R. Morris. Anyone with information about her whereabouts is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at (318) 673-7300. Tips can also be submitted anonymously to Caddo Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373 or through their P3 Tips app.
