Man Arrested for Threatening Individuals with a Firearm

Christin Mitchell

On December 30, 2024, just after 4:00 PM, Shreveport Police officers responded to reports of an individual threatening people with a firearm in the 2800 block of Emory Street.

The suspect, later identified as Christin Mitchell, was reportedly brandishing a firearm, pointing it at individuals, and threatening to kill them. Several witnesses provided statements about the incident. Responding officers quickly located Mitchell and took him into custody without incident.

The firearm used during the incident was recovered at the scene, and Mitchell was arrested for one count of Aggravated Assault with a Firearm. Further investigation by the Violent Crimes Abatement Team revealed that Mitchell is a convicted felon, and additional charges are pending.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to ensuring the safety of our community by addressing incidents of violence swiftly and thoroughly.
