

Shreveport Police Department
Chief Wayne Smith

Media Inquiries:

shreveportdpio@shreveportla.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

1/24/2025

Shreveport Police Announce Arrest in Domestic Violence Case and Seek Public's Help in Locating Wanted Suspect

Jeremiah Green

David White

The Shreveport Police Department is addressing two recent cases of domestic violence, underscoring its commitment to combating such incidents and ensuring the safety of victims.

Jeremiah Green Arrested Following Domestic Violence Incident

On January 20, 2025, at approximately 1:30 PM, Shreveport Police responded to a third domestic trouble call in the 7800 block of Yuri Drive. Upon arrival, officers detained Jeremiah Green, who has since been charged with the following:

- Domestic Abuse with Child Endangerment
- Domestic Abuse Battery by Strangulation

Green was taken into custody without incident.

David White Wanted in December Domestic Violence Case

Shreveport Police are seeking David White in connection with a violent domestic incident that occurred in December 2024 in the 6900 block of West Canal Street.

Domestic violence detectives have obtained warrants for White's arrest for the following charges:

- Simple Kidnapping
- Domestic Abuse Battery (2nd Offense)
- Domestic Abuse Battery by Serious Bodily Injury
- Domestic Abuse Battery with Strangulation

The victim in this case reported being strangled unconscious and later waking up in the trunk of a vehicle as White attempted to close it.

The Shreveport Police Department takes all reports of domestic violence seriously and is committed to holding perpetrators accountable. If you have any information regarding the whereabouts of David White, please contact the Shreveport Police Department at (318) 673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373.

Anonymous tips can also be submitted through the Crime Stoppers app or website. Together, we can work to create a safer community and support victims of domestic violence.