Shreveport Police detectives have arrested two individuals and are seeking a third suspect in connection with multiple thefts from Lowe's.

On January 24, 2025, SPD detectives were contacted by Lowe's loss prevention personnel regarding several theft incidents involving the same known suspects: Jacolby Foster (DOB 4/29/00), Vikeshia Murray (DOB 8/16/02), and Tamira Caldwell (DOB 8/6/76).

Investigators determined that on January 13, 2025, Foster and Caldwell stole $770 worth of merchandise from the store. The following day, January 14, 2025, Foster and Murray stole a generator valued at $899. On both occasions, the suspects bypassed all points of sale without rendering payment.

Surveillance footage confirmed the involvement of all three individuals. Detectives also reviewed their criminal histories, revealing extensive records for theft-related offenses:

- Jacolby Foster: Two prior theft convictions, two active prosecutions, and six prior theft-related arrests.
- Vikeshia Murray: Three prior theft convictions, five active prosecutions, and at least ten prior theft-related arrests.
- Tamira Caldwell: Twenty prior theft-related arrests, with fifteen convictions across three jurisdictions. Additionally, she has multiple arrests for issuing worthless checks.

Murray and Foster were already in custody at Caddo Correctional Center on unrelated charges. Property Crimes detectives have now charged Murray with one count of Felony Theft (LA RS 14:67) as a habitual offender, while Foster has been charged with two counts of the same offense.

An arrest warrant has been issued for Tamira Caldwell, charging her with one count of Felony Theft (LA RS 14:67) as a habitual offender. Anyone with information on her whereabouts is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at (318) 673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373.
