Shreveport Police Arrest Man Following Disturbance

Clayton Cobb

On February 10, 2025, at approximately 3:30 p.m., Shreveport Police officers were dispatched to 6201 Bert Kouns, Lot 286, in reference to a reported fight.

Upon arrival, officers made contact with the victim, who reported being inside his residence when he heard Clayton Cobb yelling outside. The victim stated that Cobb was not supposed to be at the location due to an active protection order. When confronted, Cobb allegedly attempted to force entry into the residence. The victim tried to prevent Cobb from entering, which led to a physical altercation that continued from the steps of the residence into the yard. The victim reported sustaining scratches and being struck on the top of his head during the incident.

After the altercation, Cobb reportedly got into a vehicle and drove toward the victim, forcing him to jump out of the way to avoid being hit. Cobb then exited the vehicle, picked up a potted plant, and threw it through a window of the residence, causing property damage.

Clayton Cobb has been arrested and charged with the following offenses:

- Simple Battery
- Aggravated Assault with a Weapon
- Violation of a Protection Order

The Shreveport Police Department continues to prioritize quick responses to disturbances to ensure the safety of the community.
