SPD Domestic Violence Detectives Secure Warrants for Repeat Offender

Jonathan Davis

On February 3, 2025, Shreveport Police Department domestic violence detectives launched an investigation into a reported assault involving 35-year-old Jonathan Davis. The victim, Davis's wife of four years, reported that during an altercation inside their vehicle—parked in the garage of her residence—Davis placed his hands around her neck, restricting her ability to breathe. She managed to break free and screamed for help, prompting her children to intervene.

During the investigation, detectives uncovered a history of domestic violence incidents involving Davis, with records dating back to 2017. Additionally, detectives located a permanent, non-expiring protective order issued following Davis' arrest on October 29, 2021, which explicitly listed the victim as the protected party.

Further interviews with the victim revealed that Davis had also attempted to forcibly remove her from the vehicle during a separate incident at his family's residence.

As a result of the investigation, detectives obtained arrest warrants for Jonathan Davis on the following charges:

- Domestic Abuse Battery with Strangulation (La. R.S. 14:35.3F)
- Domestic Abuse Battery – 4th Offense (Two Counts) (La. R.S. 14:35.3)
- Violation of a Protective Order Involving a Battery (Two Counts) (La. R.S. 14:79C)

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to protecting victims of domestic violence and holding offenders accountable. Anyone with information on Davis' whereabouts is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at (318) 673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373.
