Woman Arrested in Stabbing Incident

Laronda Nabors

On February 26, just after 7:00 p.m., Shreveport Police officers responded to the 2600 block of Greenwood Road in reference to a reported stabbing. Upon arrival, officers discovered a male victim suffering from a serious neck wound. The victim was losing consciousness, prompting officers to act quickly in gathering information about the incident.

A preliminary investigation revealed that the attack occurred at a local gas station in the 2400 block of Lakeshore Drive. The victim was inside his vehicle when a Black female suspect approached, opened his car door, and questioned his presence in the area. Without warning, she then stabbed him in the neck. Despite his injuries, the victim was able to drive himself to a local hospital, where he is expected to recover.

Patrol Officers swiftly identified the crime scene and reviewed surveillance footage, which led them to identify the suspect as Laronda Nabors. Officers were able to locate Nabors and recover the weapon used in the attack. She has been arrested and charged with one count of aggravated battery with a dangerous weapon.

This case remains under investigation. Anyone with additional information is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at (318) 673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373.
