SPD Invites Community for Second Annual Crush-Endo Events

The Shreveport Police Department's Community-Oriented Policing Bureau and the Shreveport Police Union are proud to support the Second Annual Crush Endo Events, a two-day initiative dedicated to raising awareness about endometriosis, a chronic medical condition that many women faces.

Join us for an eye-opening and empowering discussion designed to educate, support, and connect women navigating these often-overlooked health challenges.

Event Details:

📅 March 14, 2025 | 🕒 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM

📍 Valencia Park (1800 Viking Drive)

- Engage in a panel discussion featuring personal stories of how endometriosis impacts women's lives.
- Learn from Dr. Leonard Weather Jr., a renowned professor and subject matter expert.
- Connect with community resources to help women take charge of their health.

📅 March 15, 2025 | 🕒 9:00 AM

📍 Columbia Park (600 Block of Columbia Street)

- Participate in a walk/run awareness event to show support and spread awareness.

We invite the community to stand with us in breaking the silence and spreading awareness about these critical health issues.

For more information, please contact the Community-Oriented Policing Bureau at 318-673-6950.
