SPD Issues Warrants in Nursing Home Theft Investigation

In December of 2024, Shreveport Police officers were called to investigate a reported theft at Heritage Manor Nursing Home, located at 5030 Stratmore Avenue.

Officers responded to the facility after receiving a report from an employee, who alleged that a co-worker, Roshonda Holden, had stolen medication from the facility's medicine court.

Detectives with the Shreveport Police Department conducted a thorough investigation, which included reviewing security footage and gathering evidence. As a result of their investigation, detectives obtained warrants for Roshonda Holden on the following charges:

- One count of Possession of Schedule II Controlled Dangerous Substance
- One count of Obtaining a Controlled Dangerous Substance by Fraud
- One count of Theft

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Roshonda Holden is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or submit anonymous tips through Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373 or via the P3 mobile app.
