SPD to Host Media Event for Temporary North Substation Grand Opening

The Shreveport Police Department is proud to announce the grand opening of the temporary North Market Substation. To commemorate this milestone, the department will host a media event on Monday, March 24, 2025, at 12:45 PM at the new location: 3312 N Market Street.

This event will mark the first official roll call for patrol officers serving the North Market area, symbolizing the department's continued commitment to community presence and proactive policing.

We invite members of the media and community leaders to join us as we ring in this important addition to our city's public safety efforts.
