Shreveport Police to Host DWI Checkpoint

The Shreveport Police Department's Traffic Enforcement Unit will be conducting a sobriety checkpoint in east Shreveport on Friday, March 28, 2025. The checkpoint will take place from 10:00 p.m. until 2:00 a.m. and will be conducted in accordance with Louisiana Highway Safety Commission (LHSC) guidelines.

The primary purpose of this checkpoint is to identify and remove impaired drivers from the roadways, helping to ensure the safety of all motorists. Officers will also be prepared to address other legal issues that may arise during the course of the checkpoint.

The Shreveport Police Department encourages all drivers to make responsible choices and reminds everyone to never drive under the influence.
