The Shreveport Police Department has been made aware of two missing juveniles from the Lafayette area who are believed to be in the Shreveport area.

The two girls, identified as Somerville (15) and Nelson (16), were last known to be traveling in a 2020 dark gray Kia Optima bearing Louisiana license plate 302 HHV.

At this time, law enforcement does not believe the teens are in significant danger; however, neither of them is known to have ties to the Shreveport area. Their families are extremely concerned for their well-being and are eager to have them return home safely.

The Shreveport Police Department urges anyone with information regarding their whereabouts to contact local law enforcement immediately or call Shreveport Police at 318-673-7300.

We ask the community to remain vigilant and assist in sharing this information to help bring these girls home.
