Shreveport Police Arrest Armed Suspect at Local Club

Miloud Bouamama

On March 30, 2025, at approximately 6:25 a.m., Shreveport Police Department officers responded to a call at 202 Commerce Street (Hustler Club). Upon arrival, a DoorDash driver urgently directed officers to remove a male subject away from her vehicle.

As officers approached the individual, a male passenger in the vehicle alerted them that the suspect was armed with a handgun. When officers questioned the suspect, identified as Miloud Bouamama, he denied having any weapons. However, a search revealed a concealed handgun inside the pocket of his sweatshirt.

Further investigation determined that Bouamama had been in possession of the firearm while inside the bar. Video evidence appeared to show him flashing the weapon to the male passenger in the vehicle.

Bouamama was found to have active warrants for resisting an officer and public intoxication. He was subsequently arrested and charged with illegal carrying of weapons and possession of a firearm on the premises of an alcohol-selling establishment.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to ensuring the safety of the community and will continue to enforce laws prohibiting firearms in establishments where alcohol is served.
