SPD Traffic Bureau Conducts Sobriety Checkpoint, Five Arrested for DWI

On Friday, March 28, 2025, the Shreveport Police Department's Traffic Bureau conducted a Sobriety Checkpoint in the 1800 block of Clyde Fant Memorial Parkway. This operation was funded by the Louisiana Highway Safety Commission (LHSC) DWI Grant, aimed at reducing impaired driving and enhancing roadway safety.

During the checkpoint, officers screened nearly 300 vehicles, leading to the following results:

- 5 DWI Arrests
- 23 Traffic Violations Issued
- 295 Vehicles Screened

The following individuals were arrested for Driving While Intoxicated (DWI):

1. Anthony James Stallcup
2. Corenthon D. Marshall
3. Charles A. Madison
4. Keshawn L. Austin
5. Phillip V. Baylis

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to keeping our roads safe and will continue efforts to prevent impaired driving through enforcement and public awareness initiatives. The SPD DWI Unit remains a state leader in DWI enforcement, consistently working to enhance roadway safety and protect motorists from the dangers of impaired driving.
