Woman Arrested Following Dispute Involving Gunfire on Patzman Street

Karezma Robinson

At approximately 7:00 a.m. on March 29th, Shreveport Police dispatch received multiple calls reporting a dispute in progress at 1915 Patzman Street.

Concerned callers informed dispatchers that two women were engaged in a heated argument outside Building A. The complainant believed the individuals were sisters.

During the altercation, one of the individuals, identified as Karezma Robinson, allegedly armed herself with a firearm and used it to break a window belonging to the victim's residence. At some point, the victim attempted to confront Robinson, at which time Robinson reportedly discharged the firearm in the victim's direction.

Fortunately, no one was seriously injured by the gunfire. However, both individuals sustained minor injuries during a physical altercation.

Robinson was taken into custody and charged with one count of criminal property damage and one count of illegal use of a firearm.

The Shreveport Police Department urges residents to report any violent disputes immediately and reminds the community that conflicts should never escalate to violence.
