Officers Arrest Armed Suspect Following Disturbance at Local Apartment Complex

JaLloyd Kimball

On April 8, 2025, just after 9:00 p.m., Shreveport Police officers responded to reports of an armed individual at 4345 Illinois Street. Upon arrival, officers were informed that a physical altercation had taken place between two individuals inside the apartment complex, and one of the parties was reportedly armed with a firearm.

Thanks to the officers' swift and coordinated response, the suspect was located and taken into custody without further incident. The individual was identified as JaLloyd Kimball. He has been charged with two counts of aggravated assault with a firearm.

The Shreveport Police Department would like to commend the responding officers for their quick action, which helped prevent this potentially dangerous situation from escalating further.
