Domestic Abuse Call Leads to Arrest and Seizure of Firearm and Narcotics

, Lee'trevis Reed

On April 14, 2025, Shreveport Police officers were dispatched to an apartment located at 8510 Millicent Way, Apt. 102, in response to a report of domestic abuse. The victim stated she was being physically assaulted by her boyfriend, Lee'trevis Reed. The caller also advised that Reed was known to carry a firearm and that a young child was present during the incident.

Fearing for their safety, the victim locked herself and her child in a backroom until officers arrived.

Upon arrival, officers quickly secured the scene and took Reed into custody without further incident. During the investigation, officers discovered that Reed was in possession of a handgun and a large quantity of narcotics. Both the firearm and the narcotics were seized as evidence.

Lee'trevis Reed was arrested and charged with the following:

- One count of Domestic Abuse Battery with Child Endangerment
- One count of Possession with Intent to Distribute a Schedule I Narcotic
- One count of Illegal Possession of a Firearm

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to protecting victims of domestic violence and ensuring the safety of our community, especially our most vulnerable.
