Shreveport Police Searching for Domestic Abuse Suspect

Kerry Edwards

The Shreveport Police Department is actively searching for Kerry Edwards following a domestic violence incident that occurred on April 7, 2025, in the 1900 block of Patzman Street.

Officers responded to a call regarding a domestic dispute. Upon arrival, they spoke with a female victim who reported she had been in a relationship with Kerry Edwards. During a verbal altercation, Edwards allegedly grabbed the victim by the throat and began to strangle her.

Officers observed visible injuries consistent with the victim's account. Detectives with the Shreveport Police Department's Domestic Violence Unit have since obtained a warrant for Kerry Edwards' arrest for Domestic Abuse Battery by Strangulation.

Edwards has a history of domestic abuse-related arrests and is considered a repeat offender.

Anyone with information on Kerry Edwards' whereabouts is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at (318) 673-7300 or Caddo Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373. Crime Stoppers tips can remain anonymous, and rewards may be available for information leading to an arrest.
