Multiple Arrests Made During “Curveball” Operation

Corlandis Johnson, Ferris Ali & Frank Youngblood

As part of the ongoing Operation Curveball, Shreveport Police have arrested multiple individuals on narcotics and firearms-related charges in an effort to reduce violent crime and drug activity across the city.

On April 25, 2025, shortly after 1:00 p.m., Corlandis Johnson was taken into custody after attempting to flee from officers. Johnson was found to be in possession of illegal narcotics and a firearm. He now faces charges including:

- Distribution of narcotics, resisting an officer & Illegal carrying of a weapon

On April 24, 2025, just after 2:50 p.m., officers arrested Ferris Ali on multiple counts related to illegal drug distribution. He now faces:

- Three counts of possession of Schedule II narcotics & One count of illegal use of a controlled dangerous substance

On April 23, 2025, just after noon, officers arrested Frank Youngblood after discovering he was in possession of illegal narcotics and a firearm. Youngblood has been charged with:

- Possession with intent to distribute, Illegal possession of a firearm & Possession of marijuana (felony grade)

All of these arrests were made possible through Operation Curveball, an initiative focused on targeting individuals contributing to the spread of illegal drugs and firearms in our community.
