Shreveport Police Arrest Two Convicted Felons in Possession of Firearms

Aaron Small & Demarcus Eiland

The Shreveport Police Department continues its proactive efforts to keep illegal firearms off the streets. In the early morning hours of May 4, 2025, just after 1:00 a.m., officers conducted a traffic stop at the intersection of Jewella Avenue and West 70th Street.

The vehicle, operated by Aaron Small, was stopped for an improper license plate display. During the course of the investigation, officers discovered firearms inside the vehicle. Further checks revealed that both Small and a passenger, identified as Demarcus Eiland, are convicted felons and are legally prohibited from possessing firearms.

Both individuals were taken into custody without incident and now face multiple charges related to firearm possession by convicted felons.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to reducing gun violence and enhancing public safety through proactive enforcement and community engagement.
