Additional Charge Filed in Ongoing Investigation

Montigo Hinton

Just because a case results in an arrest does not mean the investigation is over. Detectives with the Shreveport Police Department's Violent Crimes Unit have filed an additional charge against Montigo Hinton, who is currently housed at the Caddo Correctional Center.

Through the course of their investigation, detectives discovered that Hinton conspired to obstruct justice by attempting to influence the 15-year-old victim involved in the case. While incarcerated, Hinton allegedly arranged payment in an effort to persuade the victim to commit perjury and alter her testimony regarding his involvement in the incident that led to his initial arrest.

As a result, Hinton has now been formally charged with Obstruction of Justice.

This charge is in addition to the following offenses for which he is already awaiting trial:

- Three counts of Contributing to the Delinquency of a Juvenile
- One count of Aggravated Assault with a Firearm
- One count of Indecent Behavior with a Juvenile

The investigation remains active, and additional charges are possible as detectives continue their work.
