Arrest Made Following May 14 Shooting on Quentin Street

Demohn Black

Shreveport police have made an arrest in connection with a shooting that occurred on May 14, 2025, just after 9:45 a.m. in the 2500 block of Quentin Street.

Officers responded to the scene and located a male victim suffering from a gunshot wound to the lower body. Detectives launched an immediate investigation and learned that a dispute had taken place at the residence. During the altercation, Demohn Black reportedly shot the victim in connection to a domestic dispute involving Black's mother. As a result, Demohn Black has been arrested and charged with the following offenses:

- One count of Aggravated Second-Degree Battery
- One count of Possession with Intent to Distribute Narcotics
- One count of Illegal Carrying of a Weapon

The individual who was shot has also been arrested. He has been identified as Kevin Henry. Henry faces the following charges:

- Three counts of Domestic Abuse Battery with Child Endangerment
- One count of Possession with Intent to Distribute Narcotics

A photograph of Kevin Henry will be released once he completes the booking process and is discharged from the hospital.

This case remains under investigation.
