SPD Annual Community Oriented Policing Bureau Youth Fishing Camp

The Annual Community Oriented Policing Bureau Youth Fishing Camp offers a weekend full of fun and educational activities aimed at encouraging boys and girls between the ages of 6 and 13 to develop a positive attitude, appreciation for moral values, and an understanding of key elements for personal success. This engaging outdoor program promotes nature awareness and provides an opportunity for children to learn how to fish or improve their existing fishing skills. Officers and Wildlife staff will collaborate to educate participants on fish habits, water quality, and conservation.
