Shreveport Police Continue to Enforce Squatting Ordinance, Arrest Three

Stella Mancho, Christopher Mancho, and Danna Stonecalf

The Shreveport Police Department continues its ongoing efforts to reduce squatting and related nuisance crimes across the city. This week, officers arrested three individuals under the recently enacted squatting ordinance, passed by the Mayor and City Council.

The suspects — Stella Mancho, Christopher Mancho, and Danna Stonecalf — were taken into custody for violating the new law. During the arrest, Stella Mancho and Danna Stonecalf were also found to be in possession of narcotics and drug paraphernalia. Additional charges are pending.

This action marks another step forward in the department's commitment to addressing illegal occupancy and enhancing neighborhood safety.

SPD will continue to do everything we can to deter these types of nuisance crimes and maintain the quality of life in our community.

The Shreveport Police Department encourages residents to report suspicious activity and unoccupied residences being unlawfully used. Together, we can help keep our neighborhoods safe and secure.
