Shreveport Woman Arrested Following Caught-on-Camera Vehicle Vandalism

MelRidney Robinson

The Shreveport Police Department has arrested MelRidney Robinson in connection with a dramatic case of criminal mischief that occurred on May 15, 2025, in the 1600 block of Corporate Drive.

The incident, which was captured on surveillance footage, shows Robinson arriving in a vehicle and parking next to the victim's car. Moments later, she is seen exiting her vehicle and proceeding to inflict extensive damage to the victim's car before fleeing the scene.

According to the footage, Robinson allegedly slashed all four of the vehicle's tires, broke off both side mirrors, poured chocolate syrup over the exterior, shattered the windshield, and poured sugar into the gas tank—rendering the vehicle inoperable.

Investigators believe the incident stemmed from a personal dispute, reportedly involving a shared romantic partner between Robinson and the victim.

MelRidney Robinson was arrested and charged with felony property damage. The case remains under investigation.
