Shreveport Police Crack Down on Illegal Squatting

The Shreveport Police Department continues its all-out blitz to eliminate illegal squatting within our community. Under the newly enacted city ordinance prohibiting the occupation of structures deemed unfit for human habitation, multiple individuals have been arrested in recent days.

Arrests Made Under the New Squatting Ordinance:

- May 30, 2025: Robert Douglas
- June 2, 2025: Lachelle Barnum, Jerman Wilson
- June 4, 2025: Jose Hector, Kiante Henderson, Derek Holden, Lisa James, Patrick Richmond
- June 5, 2025: Marie Alfred, Alonzo Allen (not pictured), Gregory George, Sharon George, Adam Peal

Each of these individuals was found inhabiting properties that violated the new ordinance. These actions are part of our commitment to protect neighborhoods from nuisance offenses and ensure all properties meet safety and health standards.

The Shreveport Police Department remains steadfast in its efforts to safeguard our city and keep our communities safe and secure.

If you are aware of properties being illegally occupied or have concerns regarding public safety, please contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 or report anonymously through Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373.
