SPD Makes Arrests Following Shooting Incident on Greenwood Road

Lakeisha Shivers & Marcus Brown

Shreveport Police have made arrests following a strange sequence of events stemming from a shooting that occurred on May 24th.

Officers were dispatched to a shooting in the 2100 block of Greenwood Road. Upon arrival, they located a male victim suffering from a gunshot wound to the knee. The victim initially told officers that the firearm discharged accidentally while he and his girlfriend were preparing to leave the location.

However, inconsistencies in the story quickly raised red flags. Officers were unable to locate the alleged girlfriend mentioned in the victim's statement. As detectives investigated further, they discovered that the individual identified as the girlfriend was not involved in the incident. The actual shooter was determined to be the victim's real girlfriend, later identified as Lakeisha Shivers.

Detectives learned that Shivers shot Marcus Brown during a domestic dispute at the scene before fleeing. It was also determined that she drove Brown to the hospital and later concealed the firearm in her vehicle.

Further investigation revealed that Marcus Brown was wanted for a probation violation.

As a result of the investigation:

- Lakeisha Shivers was arrested and charged with one count of Obstruction of Justice and one count of Battery of a Dating Partner Inflicting Serious Bodily Injury with a Dangerous Weapon.
- Marcus Brown was also taken into custody on an outstanding Probation Violation warrant.

Both individuals have been booked into the Shreveport City Jail.

The case remains under investigation.
